Po Leung Kuk Lam Man Chan English Primary School

LMC A SCHOOL THAT CARES

Po Leung Kuk Lam Man Chan English Primary School is a DSS co-educational English primary school which was established in 2007. It is committed to achieve the school motto of “Love, Respect, Diligence and Integrity” and the school mission “LMC” (Language, Moral and Control).

Emphasis on the global needs: -

Language

Education towards biliteracy (English and Putonghua)

Moral

Respect for different cultures and our nature

Control

Learn to control our body, our sense and our mind

With the well-equipped of “LMC”, all LMCites’ (people in LMC) ultimate goal is to contribute the society and the universe.

The school enrolls students and teachers from as diverse as 24 different nationalities from five continents. Amid such as diverse cultural and linguistic background, a harmonious and multi-cultural environment is created. The school holds lots of activities and educational exchanges to broaden students’ global horizons, and all these were highly recognized by all stakeholders, sponsoring bodies as well as EDB.

Our curriculum is aptly infused with moral and values education through the Whole Person Development subject and well-embedded with a rich variety of co-curricular and life-wide learning opportunities to enrich students’ learning experience.

Our population is diverse and to enhance students’ understanding and appreciation of different cultures, students of various ethnic backgrounds are invited to introduce their cultures in the morning assemblies. Students treat each other well despite the fact that many are from different countries around the world. The school’s core concepts of “Respect for different cultures” and “One Team, One Mind, We Care, We respect” have been effectively conveyed to students and their families.

Our activities have been appropriately arranged to promote student’s health, environmental awareness and reinforce their good behaviour like Physical Fitness Test Day, Energy saver and Green Ambassadors, Caring Angels, Student Award Scheme, Every child can serve etc.

Our ECA is organized in a wide range, such as Art Alive, jazz dance, roller skating, Life-wide Learning programmes and exchange tours outside Hong Kong, have been provided for students to enrich students' school life, develop their diverse interests and widen their horizons. Furthermore, a house system (Phoenix, Leopard, Kraken, Unicorn – the initials in the houses' name carry our wish that students of PLK LMC schools can be United as ONE and further studies to University) is established to further enhance students' sense of ownership and belonging through the inter-house activities.

Our Home-School relationship is highly catered through an open-door policy. The school doors are always open to parents. Some of them join the morning assemblies on a regular basis and share the joy with their children. The school has arranged suitable seminars for parents to help them assist their children in adapting smoothly to the transition between different stages of schooling.

Our students are active, cheerful, innocent, passionate, expressive and willing to share with others. Students respect each other and maintain a harmonious relationship with their classmates. They have a strong motivation to learn, and they participate actively both in the lessons and school activities. In addition, they participate actively in various intra- and inter-school activities and competitions, including sports, music and arts, and have attained numerous individual and group awards at district and territory levels. Their achievements are remarkable.

In a nutshell, Po Leung Kuk Lam Man Chan English Primary School is located in a cosmopolitan city. Of course, the school has mission and responsibility to help the society maintain the global horizon through our harmonious, healthy and joyful education. Our school is unique and we will try our best to carry on our special features to run the school.
